ENGLISH

Reading 20mins	Phonics 10 mins	Writing 30 mins
Using the internet log onto Booktrust and find the story 'Oh No, George' Read along with the story. Ask a grown up to ask you these questions; What does George do wrong? Make a list What does George do to say sorry? What do you think George did when he saw the rubbish? OR Read the questions and write your responses in your exercise book.	ow (blow the snow) Practise reading these words; blow flow snow grow sow Can you make up some alien words? For example trowp, practice saying these words.	Following on from your work on Worrysaurus today we are going to think about writing a letter. Look at the part in the story where the Worrysaurus is sat sadly in the cave. How do you think he feels? We are going to write a letter to him to suggest ways that he could stop feeling scared. Lets first of all look at letters and what they need to include. See attached Powerpoint 'Types of Letters' Did you spot the key features? Ask your grown up if they have any letters at home, take a look, can you spot the address, date, greeting, introduction, ending (love from, yours sincerely).

Please choose a story from Oxford Owl for your child to read each day: https://home.oxfordowl.co.uk/		You are writing an informal letter to Worrysaurus so make a list of ideas that could help him to stop worrying.
