• Say what you are talking about	Include alliteration e.g that greedy Guy of Gisborne (Robin's opinion) that vexatious and villainous Robin Hood (Guy's opinion)
• Say why it is important • State a problem • Statistics / personal example	Think about what Robin or Guy would think of peasants, the merry men, the king, Prince John in the speech. Include rhetorical questions, emotive vocab and the power of three.

How much as Robin taken? This can be your statistics. E.g Guy might say: In the last week alone, he has had the nerve and cheek to steal £800 worth of gold owed to the king. Does he have no conscience?

However, Robin would say: In the last week, we have successfully reclaimed £800 that has callously been taken by Gisborne's men. This was all Sir Richard's money. They had savagely taken it as he had to pay those unfair, unlawful and unreasonable taxes.

How will you get rid of Robin?? / How will you stop Guy and the Sheriff's men?

Power of three: (If writing as Guy) Without Robin, we would be.... Without Robin and his men, we would be ..... Without Robin and his men we would be .....

(If writing as Robin ) With Guy and the Sheriff's men, we would be ....

• Solve the problem
